NEW YORK COLLEGE OF PODIATRIC MEDICINE

NYCPM Annual Awards Ceremony Honors Thirty Members of Classes of 2010 and 2011 with Scholarship Awards

On Tuesday, November 18, members of the Classes of 2010 and 2011, along with faculty, administration, proud parents and other relatives, as well as several distinguished guests, gathered in one of the large lecture halls at the New York College of Podiatric Medicine (NYCPM) to honor thirty high-achieving members of the two Classes with scholarship awards and certificates.

Honorees, guests and faculty mingled at dinner in the Bruce J. Frankel, DPM Conference Center at NYCPM following the College's annual Scholarship Awards ceremony.

Robert Eckles, DPM, Dean of Clinical Studies and Graduate Medical Education, opened the ceremony by introducing Louis L. Levine, President and CEO, and Michael J. Trepal, DPM, Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean, both of whom offered brief remarks. Dr. Eckles also introduced the distinguished guests, who included Robert D. Rampino, DPM, Immediate Past President of the New York State Podiatric Medical Association (NYSPMA); Christian A. Robertozzi, DPM, Past President of the American Podiatric Medical Association (APMA), who presented the Jonathan Robertozzi Foundation Memorial Scholarship; Lawrence Santi, DPM, Past President of the NYSPMA, whose son, Joseph, was one of the students being honored; Len Thaler, Executive Director of the NYSPMA; and Israel Goldstein, DPM, Adjunct Instructor of Primary Podiatric Medicine at NYCPM, who has endowed the Maimonides Award for Academic Excellence and Community Service.

All told, NYCPM awards more than $550,000 in scholarships annually, including awards to graduating seniors. Many of the scholarships are endowed by NYCPM alumni or are sponsored by organizations such as the APMA and the NYSPMA. The awards ceremony itself was generously supported by Alterna LLC, makers of Kerasal® and JointFlex®.
