

Jonathan Srouer Captures ABFAS' Michael Stone Award

Jonathan Srouer receives the 2017 Michael Stone Outstanding Professional Conduct Award from Mindy Benton, President, ABFAS. Michael J. Trepal, DPM, VP and Academic Dean is to the left.

Jonathan Srouer ('17) received the 2017 Michael Stone Outstanding Professional Conduct Award at the annual meeting of the American Board of Foot and Ankle Surgeons (ABFAS) in Las Vegas. ABFAS presents this award annually to one fourth-year student from each of the nine podiatric schools. A letter supporting his candidacy stated that "Mr. Srouer was universally lauded for his professionalism, application of didactic knowledge and thorough integration of all aspects of his clinical training into the management of his patients."

While at the ABFAS meeting in Las Vegas, NYCPM held a dinner attended by both students and alumni. Michael J. Trepal, DPM, VP and Academic Dean, and Lisa Lee, Dean of Student Services and Enrollment, addressed them about supporting the College, not just monetarily, but also through mentorship as well as via our upcoming Alumni Gala on October 28th.