

Joel Sturm Chief Operating Officer & Vice President, Administration

Joel A. Sturm joined NYCPM in 1998. Prior to coming to the College, he spent over two decades working in the business world, mostly in risk management, healthcare and the insurance industry. His positions included analyst, consultant, and vice president; he has also worked in government. As Chief Operating Officer and Vice President for Administration at NYCPM, he is responsible for many of the day-to-day operations of the College and the Foot Center of New York. He is the senior officer in charge of administration, human resources, risk management, government relations, legal, information technology, long-term planning, operations, and marketing. The College also owns and manages an off-shore insurance company for medical malpractice coverage known as Podia Insurance Ltd. Mr. Sturm is responsible for managing all aspects of this insurance carrier, coordinating all aspects of professional liability coverage for our clinical faculty, students and staff.
