

Awards Ceremony Honors Seniors and More

Thirty-six distinct awards were bestowed in early May at NYCPM's Annual Awards Ceremony to second-, third-, and fourth-year students who excelled in academics as well as other aspects of their achievements as podiatric medical students. Ninety-nine percent of the awards have a monetary component; the Pi Delta and the Pi Mu Delta honors do not. As usual, the mood reflected both pride and celebration. Congrats to all!

Susan Rice, DPM ('88) is chair of the Scholarship Committee.
