In Memoriam
Father of COO Joel Sturm and NYCPM Instructor
Rabbi Ephraim H. Sturm

NYCPM mourns the passing of Rabbi Ephraim H. Sturm (1924-2015), father of COO Joel A. Sturm and former Adjunct Instructor of Community Health and Medicine, NYCPM. Rabbi Sturm was ordained in 1946 and received an MA from Columbia University in 1949. For 20 years, Rabbi Sturm had been a well-respected and much-beloved member of the NYCPM faculty as an Adjunct Instructor of Medical Ethics in the Department of Community Health and Medicine. Formerly Executive Vice President of the National Council of Young Israel, Rabbi Sturm received a plaque in 2009 from NYCPM President and CEO Louis L. Levine at a ceremony held at the College. The plaque, citing Rabbi Sturm's decades-long relationship with NYCPM, offered a tribute to his "outstanding and dedicated service to the College and its students." The NYCPM Administration will dedicate a room in memory of Rabbi Sturm. Donations may be sent to the attention of Joel Sturm.
