

NYCPM
New York College of Podiatric Medicine

Steven Goldman, DPM ('82), Receives Presidential Recognition

NYCPM alumnus Dr. Steven Goldman recently received a Certificate of Appreciation from President Barack Obama, in recognition of his achievements while serving as a Reserve Executive Officer to the Surgical Operations Squadron Commander for the 459th Medical Group at Andrews AFB in Maryland. Dr. Goldman was recently appointed as the Acting Chief of Surgery at the Department of Veteran Affairs (DVA) - New York Harbor.

Dr. Goldman's Federal service started in 1993 as staff podiatrist. Concurrently, he joined the USAF as a reserve podiatrist. He advanced through the ranks in both areas of Federal Service to become Chief of Podiatry at the VAMC and was eventually promoted to Lieutenant Colonel. He retired from the Air Force in 2013 after 20 years of continuous service.