

NYCPM
New York College of Podiatric Medicine

Get to Know... Board of Trustees Board Member Halina M. Semla-Pulaski, MS, DPM ('89), LHD

Halina M. Semla-Pulaski, MS, DPM ('89), LHD, has been in private practice since 1990, maintaining offices in Copiague, NY and Brooklyn, NY.

Dr. Semla-Pulaski received her DPM degree from NYCPM in 1989. Earlier, she served as Medical Lab Director at Glubczyce District Hospital, Poland; Senior Medical Researcher at Long Island Jewish Hospital/The Hillside Medical Center; and Nassau Hospital (now Winthrop University Hospital in Mineola, NY).

Dr. Semla-Pulaski is a Diplomate of the American Board of Podiatric Orthopedics and Primary Podiatric Medicine-Specialty-Podiatric Medicine. She is a co-author of several scientific publications published in prestigious medical journals in Europe and the U.S. that concentrated on bone osteopenia. They resulted from research she conducted in the Metabolism Lab at Winthrop University Hospital.

Dr. Semla-Pulaski is a consulting Staff Member in the Department of Orthopedics at Winthrop University Hospital. She is fluent in Polish, conversant in Russian and has a literary knowledge of Russian, German and Latin.