Rock G. Positano, DPM, MSc, MPH, Deputy Chair of NYCPM Board of Trustees, Co-Authors and Edits Book on Foot and Ankle Sports Medicine

Rock G. Positano, DPM, MSc, MPH, Deputy Chairman of the New York College of Podiatric Medicine's Board of Trustees, and Director of the Non-Surgical Foot and Ankle Service at New York's Hospital for Special Surgery, has co-authored and edited Foot and Ankle Sports Medicine, a state-of-the-art, interdisciplinary reference work invaluable to any health care provider treating the lower extremity. Several chapters of the book were written by members of the NYCPM Faculty, including Michael J. Trepal, DPM, Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean, and Professor of Surgical Sciences; Thomas M. DeLauro, DPM, Professor and Chair, Department of Medical Sciences; and E. Giannin Perez, DPM, NYCPM Resident. Many of the other authors of chapters in the book hold rank in NYCPM's Department of Academic Orthopedic Surgery.
