

Michael J. Trepal VP for Academic Affairs, Dean, Chief Academic Officer

Michael J. Trepal, DPM, FACPAS serves NYCPM as Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dean and Chief Academic Officer. He is responsible for all academic programs at the College including undergraduate, graduate and continuing medical education, as well as student services.

Dr. Trepal graduated summa cum laude from NYCPM IN 1981 and subsequently completed a surgical residency sponsored by NYCPM and its affiliated hospitals. Prior to being appointed Dean, Dr. Trepal served as Chair of the Department of Surgery and maintains the rank of professor.

Dr. Trepal is section chief for podiatry at Metropolitan Hospital and is also program director for the podiatric residency at SUNY Downstate. He is a past chair of the examination committee for the American Board of Foot and Ankle Surgery as well as a member of its board of directors. He has served on many committees for the profession, including the Council on Podiatric Medical Education, for which he is currently Vice Chair.

Dr. Trepal has authored numerous scientific papers, conducted research studies as a prime investigator and lectured extensively both nationally and internationally.