There were lots of smiles all around on May 2nd at the annual awards ceremony that recognized students’ academic achievements, community or school service, plus other achievements or attributes. The scholarship committee, chaired by Susan M. Rice, DPM (’88) and seven other faculty and staff, worked with Trustees and alumni and representatives of grantor organizations to determine the winners from second-, third- and fourth-year classes. Eighty-five students received 174 awards, scholarships, and other honors at the event, a real celebration of accomplishment and commitment. Congratulations to all!
