

Alumni Honor ACFAS Award to Dr. Eric G. Walter

Eric G. Walter, DPM ('90), has received the 2021 American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons' (ACFAS) Distinguished Service Award, one of the College's highest honors; Dr. Walter is the award's 18th recipient. The ACFAS Board of Directors presents this award each year to recognize those members who volunteer their time, expertise, and service behind the scenes to help enhance the College's mission to advance the profession of foot and ankle surgery for the benefit of the patients they serve.

Dr. Walter graduated from NYCPM and completed his residency at the College as well. He practices in the Bronx and is an assistant professor at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine and Montefiore Medical Center. He has been involved in residency education and active in the College's Region groups and board of directors.

Source: PM News