

Alain O. Silverio, EdM, EdS, Promoted to Dean of Academic Administration and Outcomes

At September's Faculty Retreat, Joel Sturm, COO and Michael J. Trepal, DPM (1981), FACFAS, Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean, announced that Alain O. Silverio, EdM, EdS, Assistant Dean for Academic Administration and Outcomes, has been promoted to Dean. In addition to a large portfolio of responsibilities at NYCPM (see below), he is also pursuing his Doctorate in Higher Education from St. Peters University.

As Dean, Mr. Silverio, who joined NYCPM in 2012 with 25 years of higher education experience, has these responsibilities:

- Administer the strategic planning process.
- Review and publication of student handbook.
- Outcome assessment and reporting.
- Preparation of CPME required reports.
- Direct supervision of the Educational Technology Project Manager, Jennifer Lugo.
- Cooperative efforts with Recruitment staff and Admissions Committee.
- Manage agenda and Minutes for Curriculum Committee.
- Oversight of e-curriculum database.
- Preparation of NYSED required reporting.
- Preparation of Academic Calendar.
- Collect and review all syllabi and book lists.
- Assist VP for Academic Affairs in other matters as needed.

Alain O. Silverio, EdM, EdS, Promoted to Dean of Academic Administration and Outcomes (Cont'd)

He reports directly to Dean Trepal. Dr. Trepal says, "Alain's promotion was based on excellence in performance of these duties and will give him a greater degree of authority in carrying them out."

Dean Silverio was the subject of a profile published on social media by Prep for Prep, a leadership development program he attended that identifies gifted and talented minority students in public schools who are asked to test and apply. Upon completion of its rigorous 14-month program, which prepares students both academically and socially, students are placed in prestigious independent schools in New York City with full scholarship; Prep for Prep maintains its support of the "academic and personal growth" of its graduates through college. He graduated from Prep in 1983. The profile was published as part of the school's Hispanic Heritage Month observance.