

Benjamin B. Choi, BA, MS, JD, LHD Board of Trustees Member

Benjamin B. Choi, Esq. joined the NYCPM Board of Trustees in May 2014. He is the Chief Municipal Prosecutor on behalf of the State of New Jersey within the statutory jurisdictions of the Municipal Courts in the cities of Hoboken and Avon-By-The-Sea. He has held his position in Avon-By-The-Sea since 2004, and in Hoboken since 2009. In January of 2014, Mr. Choi became Managing Partner at The Choi Law Group LLC, based in Rutherford, New Jersey, where he is responsible for the daily operations of a law firm consisting of eight attorneys. From 1999 to 2013, Mr. Choi was an Associate Attorney or Partner in several other New Jersey-based law firms. He earned a J.D. degree at Rutgers School of Law, in Newark, New Jersey, in 1999, having previously been an Eagleton Fellow at the Eagleton Institute of Politics, where he earned a Master of Science degree in 1997. Mr. Choi also studied Criminal Law during a summer semester at Magdalen College of Oxford University. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Rutgers University.